

CLAS PRESENTS

RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

JOIN US FOR A SESSION OF
PRESENTATIONS ON LATIN AMERICA & THE CARIBBEAN

FRIDAY

07-11-2024

10:30AM - 2:30PM

LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED

LUCY STONE HALL,
ROOM A265

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
School of Arts and Sciences
Center for Latin American Studies

CLAS PRESENTS

RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

COFFEE AND PASTRIES

10:30 TO 11:00

PANEL 1: INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES, POWER, RESOURCES

11:00 TO 12:00

LEONARDO CALZADA

Local Perspectives and Institutional Bricolage Around Conservation and Development: Sembrando Vida and the Maya Train in the Southern Yucatán Peninsula

SANDRA ACOCAL

*The Indian Nobility in Central México in the Sixteenth Century
The Institution of the Noble House*

NATHAN DARMIENTO

Seeing Like a (Mexican) State: Researching a Peripheral Zone in a National Archive

GILSON MATEUS

Indigenous Populations in Jesuit Land Compositions: Legal Arguments for Possession in Colonial Quito

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
School of Arts and Sciences
Center for Latin American Studies

CLAS PRESENTS

RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

PANEL 2: CULTURES, PRACTICES, HEALING

12:00 TO 12:50

JAVIERA BARRIENTOS

Religious Archives in the Study of South American Waste Paper

ANA LLURBA

Bodies that Consume Bodies: Consumption Anxieties in the Latin American Anthropocene

JOYCE LU

Community health workers or medicine vendors? Middle figures in Guatemala's therapeutic landscape of antimicrobial resistance

LUNCH

12:50 TO 1:15

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
School of Arts and Sciences
Center for Latin American Studies

CLAS PRESENTS

RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

PANEL 3: MOBILITIES, POLITICS, DEVELOPMENT

1:15 TO 2:30

GLORIA D'ALESSIO

The Making and Unmaking of a Migration Corridor: Migration, Labor, and Reconfigurations of Border Life in the Darien borderland

LAURA DE MOYA GUERRA

Performing Diplomacy: Taiwan and China Dispute in Colombia During the Cold War 1960-1980

JEFFREY AIZPRUA

Chaos at the End of the Funnel: How DTOs, poverty, and state capture have channeled drugs and violence to Esmeraldas, Ecuador

LAURIAN ROSA ROSA

The empire remains: colonial continuities in Puerto Rico's post-military landscapes

MARIA CHACON RENDON

El éxito de La Calle y los orígenes del Nacionalismo Revolucionario en Bolivia

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
School of Arts and Sciences
Center for Latin American Studies